Music puts campus in motion

"Guys and Dolls" cast members review their song books for the April 14-15 annual spring-musical which was a combination presentation of the music and drama departments. At bottom left practicing a scene from the performance are Robert Fuentes, Tony Bautista, Jerry McCorkle, Manuel Silva, and Lori Ward. Forming a singing chorus line at bottom right are Marci Holgate, Wendy Woolsey, Jerry McCorkle, Cindy Syers, and Lynn Tullsen. Marriage scene for the musical is rehearsed, upper right, by Laura Sorenson, Alex Basquez, and director Pichierri.

Concert Band

Many groups in the community were entertained during the year by the vocal ensemble. A trip to Los Angeles to view the musical "A Chorus Line" was attended by the vocalists. Class members will form the nucleus of the cast for the spring musical, "Guys and Dolls."

Treble Choir

Entertaining many organizations in the community, including at the Delano Chamber of Commerce banquet, was the vocal ensemble. A trip to Los Angeles to view the musical "A Chorus Line" was enjoyed by all. The group was busy in the spring preparing the "Guys and Dolls" musical.

Executive Council leaders lounge around above and gather for a meeting below, all smiles despite the revelation at the start of school that lack of finances would hamper the undertaking of many activities during the year. Homecoming came off in fine style with a fireworks display and a new style ASB card with the individual's picture laminated on it was introduced. The number of rallies was reduced and the annual Powder Puff football game was cancelled.

Presenting the 1977-78 Delano Tiger Marching Band

Forming the Tigerette drill team were, first row, Sylvia Serrano, Belen San Antonio, Merlinda Rabanal, Rosalinda Bravo, and Nancy San Antonio; second row, Leticia Hinojosa, Jardin Idolyantes, Yvonne Salas, Nikki Worley, and Kathy Ginn; third row, Mary Jane Cristobal, Christine Homen, Cheri Sand, Nancy Goodwin, and Norma Marin; fourth row, Rose Mary Figueroa, Elizabeth Moore, Shelly Hiett, and Beatrice Ramirez; fifth row, Wendy Molica, Judy Wilson, Yvetta Heredia, Ida Ortiz, and Susan Bailey; sixth row, Donna Galapon, Marci Holgate, Tami Johnson, Shelley Davis, and Marlene Goree; seventh row, Peggy Gonzales, Laurie Shaff, Hope McGuirk, Tracy Goodwin, and Teena Sand; eighth row, Cindy Syers, Rebecca Martinez, Yolanda Espinosa, Glynnis Hickey, and Shanna Sproul; ninth row, Edie Combs, and Cindy Medina.

Officers of the Tigerettes were, foreground to back, Susan Bailey, Cheri Sand, Mary Jane Cristobal, Christine Homen, Elizabeth Moore, Marci Holgate, and Shelly Hiett.

The Tigerette drill team joined with the band in a first place effort in the halftime show competition at Chico. The girls marched in the Delano Wine and Harvest Festival and at the Chico parade.

Performing at home football games was a continuing role for Tigerettes, but for the first time they also performed at several home basketball games and at the playoff basketball game against Garces in the Highland gym. Their precision routines drew them many plaudits.

The Tigerettes took on a new look by adding more precision to their style with emphasis on high kicks, head flips and jump splits. Their objective was excellence and entertainment. Participating during football were 48 girls with the group for the winter including 16 girls and four alternates.

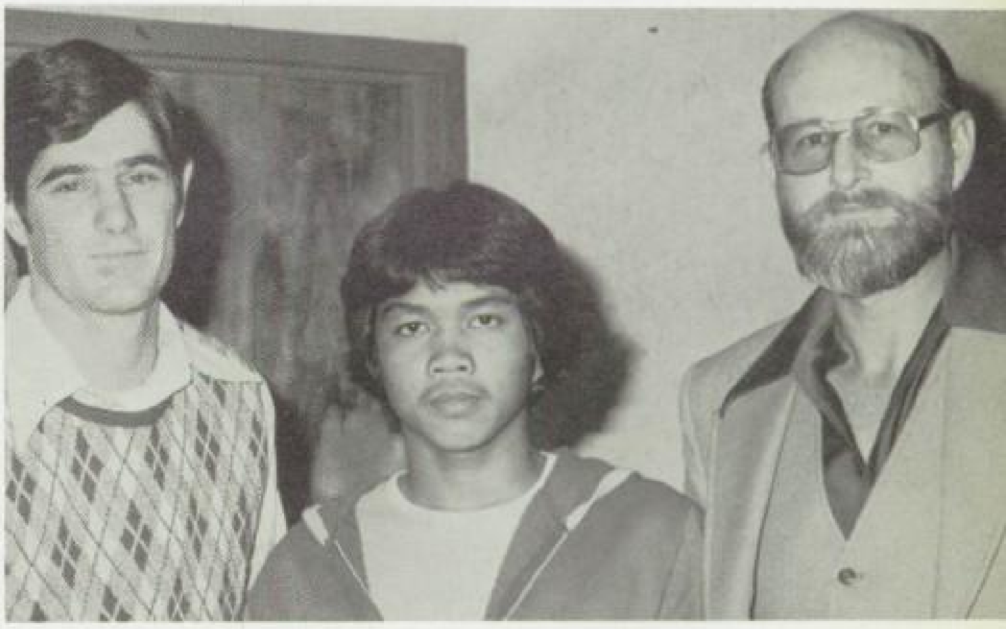
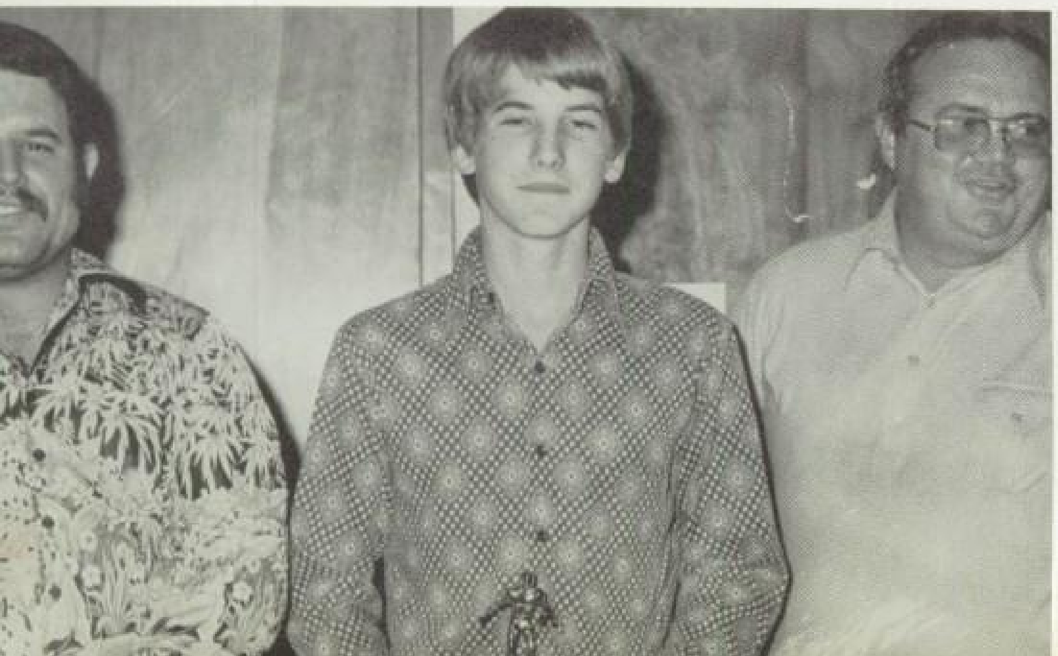
Feted at the first Fall Sports Banquet were, above, Coach Gary Shaffer presenting water polo awards to Marlin Hiett, outstanding senior; John Pandol, top underclassman; and Scott Whittington, JV most valuable. Service award winner Mark Rostain was not present. Below Mrs. Karen Stahl honors volleyballers Maurice Smith, non-senior and all-league; JoAnne Cummings, service award; and Jo Jo Beaird, most outstanding. At bottom Mark Andreas accepts MVP prize for champion frosh-soph footballers from Coaches Noriel and Martin.





At top Coach Delehoy presents most valuable JV football award to Ugo Ledezma; middle above, Coaches Brinkman and Gann recognize frosh most outstanding gridder Willie Picato; and immediately above are cross country recipients, seated, Jimmy Rios, service award; Felipe Segovia, outstanding; Helen Lopez, girls' outstanding, and, standing, John Hunt, service, and Jerry Ausborn, underclass award.

Seniors

As a new idea for seniors, the Class of 1978 headed by president Sandy Hill, vice-president Millie Rabanal and secretary-treasurer Susan Harris, unveiled at Homecoming a large banner proclaiming the Homecoming theme "The Greatest Show on Earth."

With lots of vitality the core of seniors won its share of competitions at fall rallies and sponsored the helicopter dropping of balloons on Homecoming day.

Sale of balloons at home football games and possibility of sale of seat cushions were fall senior projects. Class members also looked forward to baccalaureate and graduation, the senior picnic and the Disneyland trip.

Senior class officers for 1978 were secretary-treasurer Susan Harris, president Sandy Hill and vice-president Millie Rabanal.

The Tiger mosaic reflected the spirit of the some 300 class members.

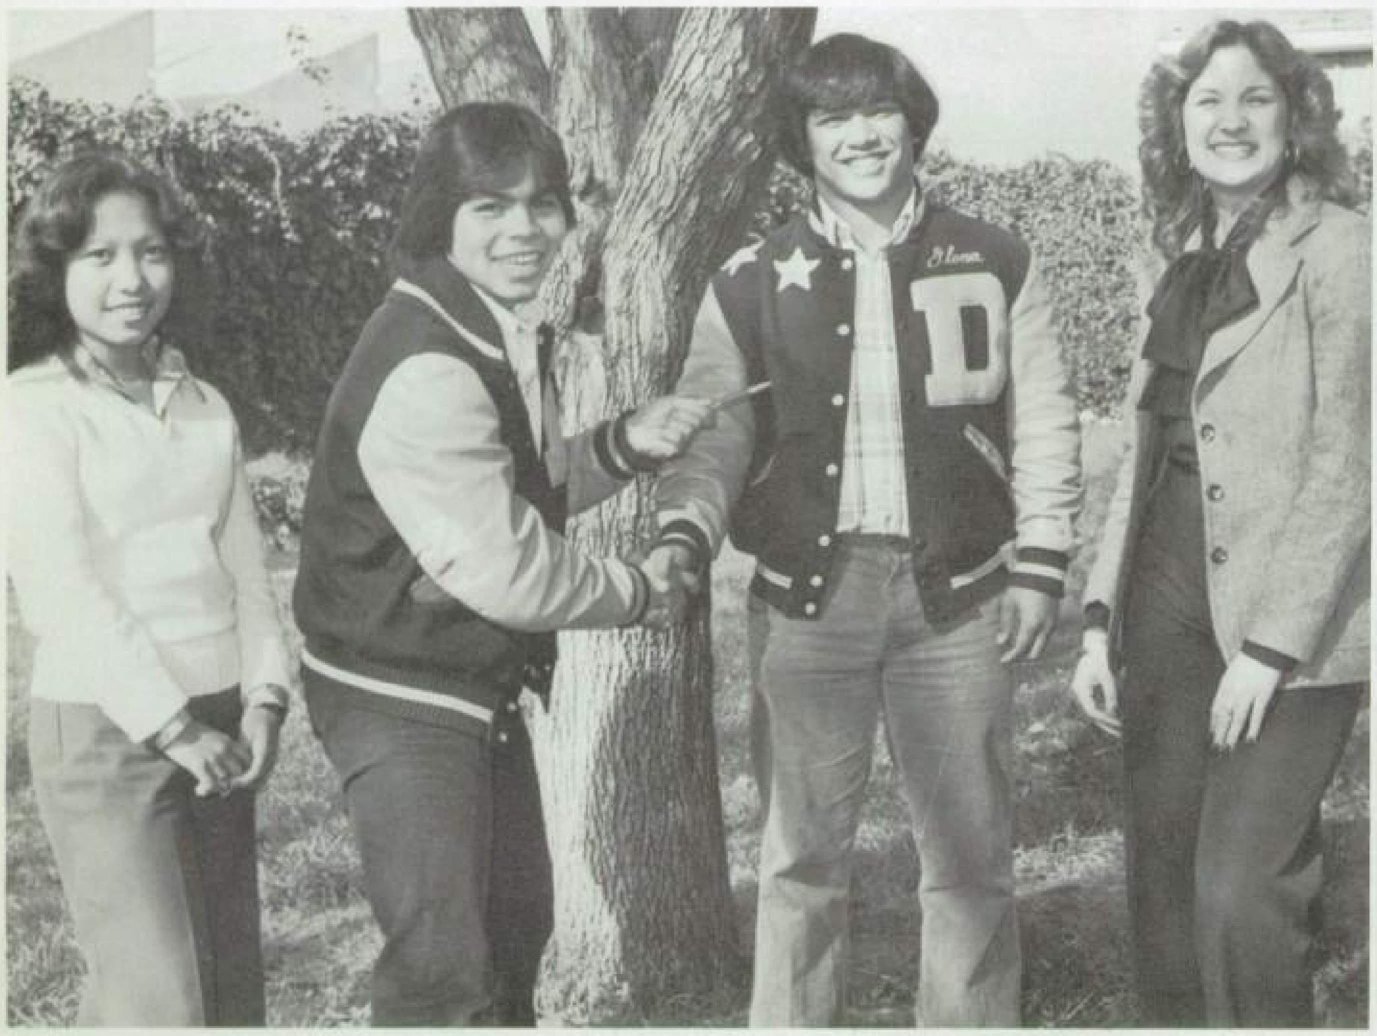
Juniors



Juniors were led during the year by Evelyn Agbayani, treasurer; James Herrera, president; Glenn Basconcillo, vice-president; and Ann Buksa, secretary.

At press time juniors were involved in a discussion about where and when to sponsor a winter formal. With planning so late, it appeared the event if held at all would be a spring function.

Juniors did cop first place in the float competition during Homecoming and sponsored a fall after-game dance.

Class leaders were uncertain if any other spring functions would be sponsored by the class.

Festival award winners

“Rehearsal” knocks ’em Dead

“Murder in Rehearsal” became the first production at Delano High School under the direction of new drama instructor Doug Zug. The play was the first to be performed by dramatists for the student body in several years. The production was given during the school day and also for the public the evenings of Dec. 7 and 8.

Live Wire staff does it together

The staff of more than 25 students for the first semester was reduced to only 15 class members for the second semester. Developing their writing and editing skills and trying to track down campus news was the difficult task posed weekly for the Live Wire staff.

Tiger reporters

Rising costs of publication and the typewriter producing the Live Wire copy becoming obsolete with no replacemen found feasible, the paper was confronted during the secon term and in the coming year with reducing the number o dates of publication.

Live Wire staff members included, front, Andrea Turnipseed, Marcha Sherriff, Katie Zaninovich, Debby Davis, David Vandergriff, Alice Madrid, Jame Herrera, Stella Liege, Beth Howell, and Melissa McClain and, second row, Mark Koonce, Eddie Yetter, John Rozum, Ginny Hardin, Betty Rozum, To Fukawa, Manuel Rivera, Laurie Lara, Mylon Marshall, Dean Tullsen, Theresa Sims, John Audap, Philip Lee, and Tim Palmquist.

Happy with the finished product are staffers, above, Debby Davis, Laurie Lara, David Vandergriff, Lucricia Bozanich, and Stella Liege. Journalists Mylon Marshall, Dean Tullsen, Leamon King, and John Rozum were active in Press Club.

Missing pictures, picture dates that fell through, and other problems plagued the Del-Ano staff, but the final deadline was finally met—a week late due to the late start of spring sports—on Friday, March 17, St. Patrick's Day.

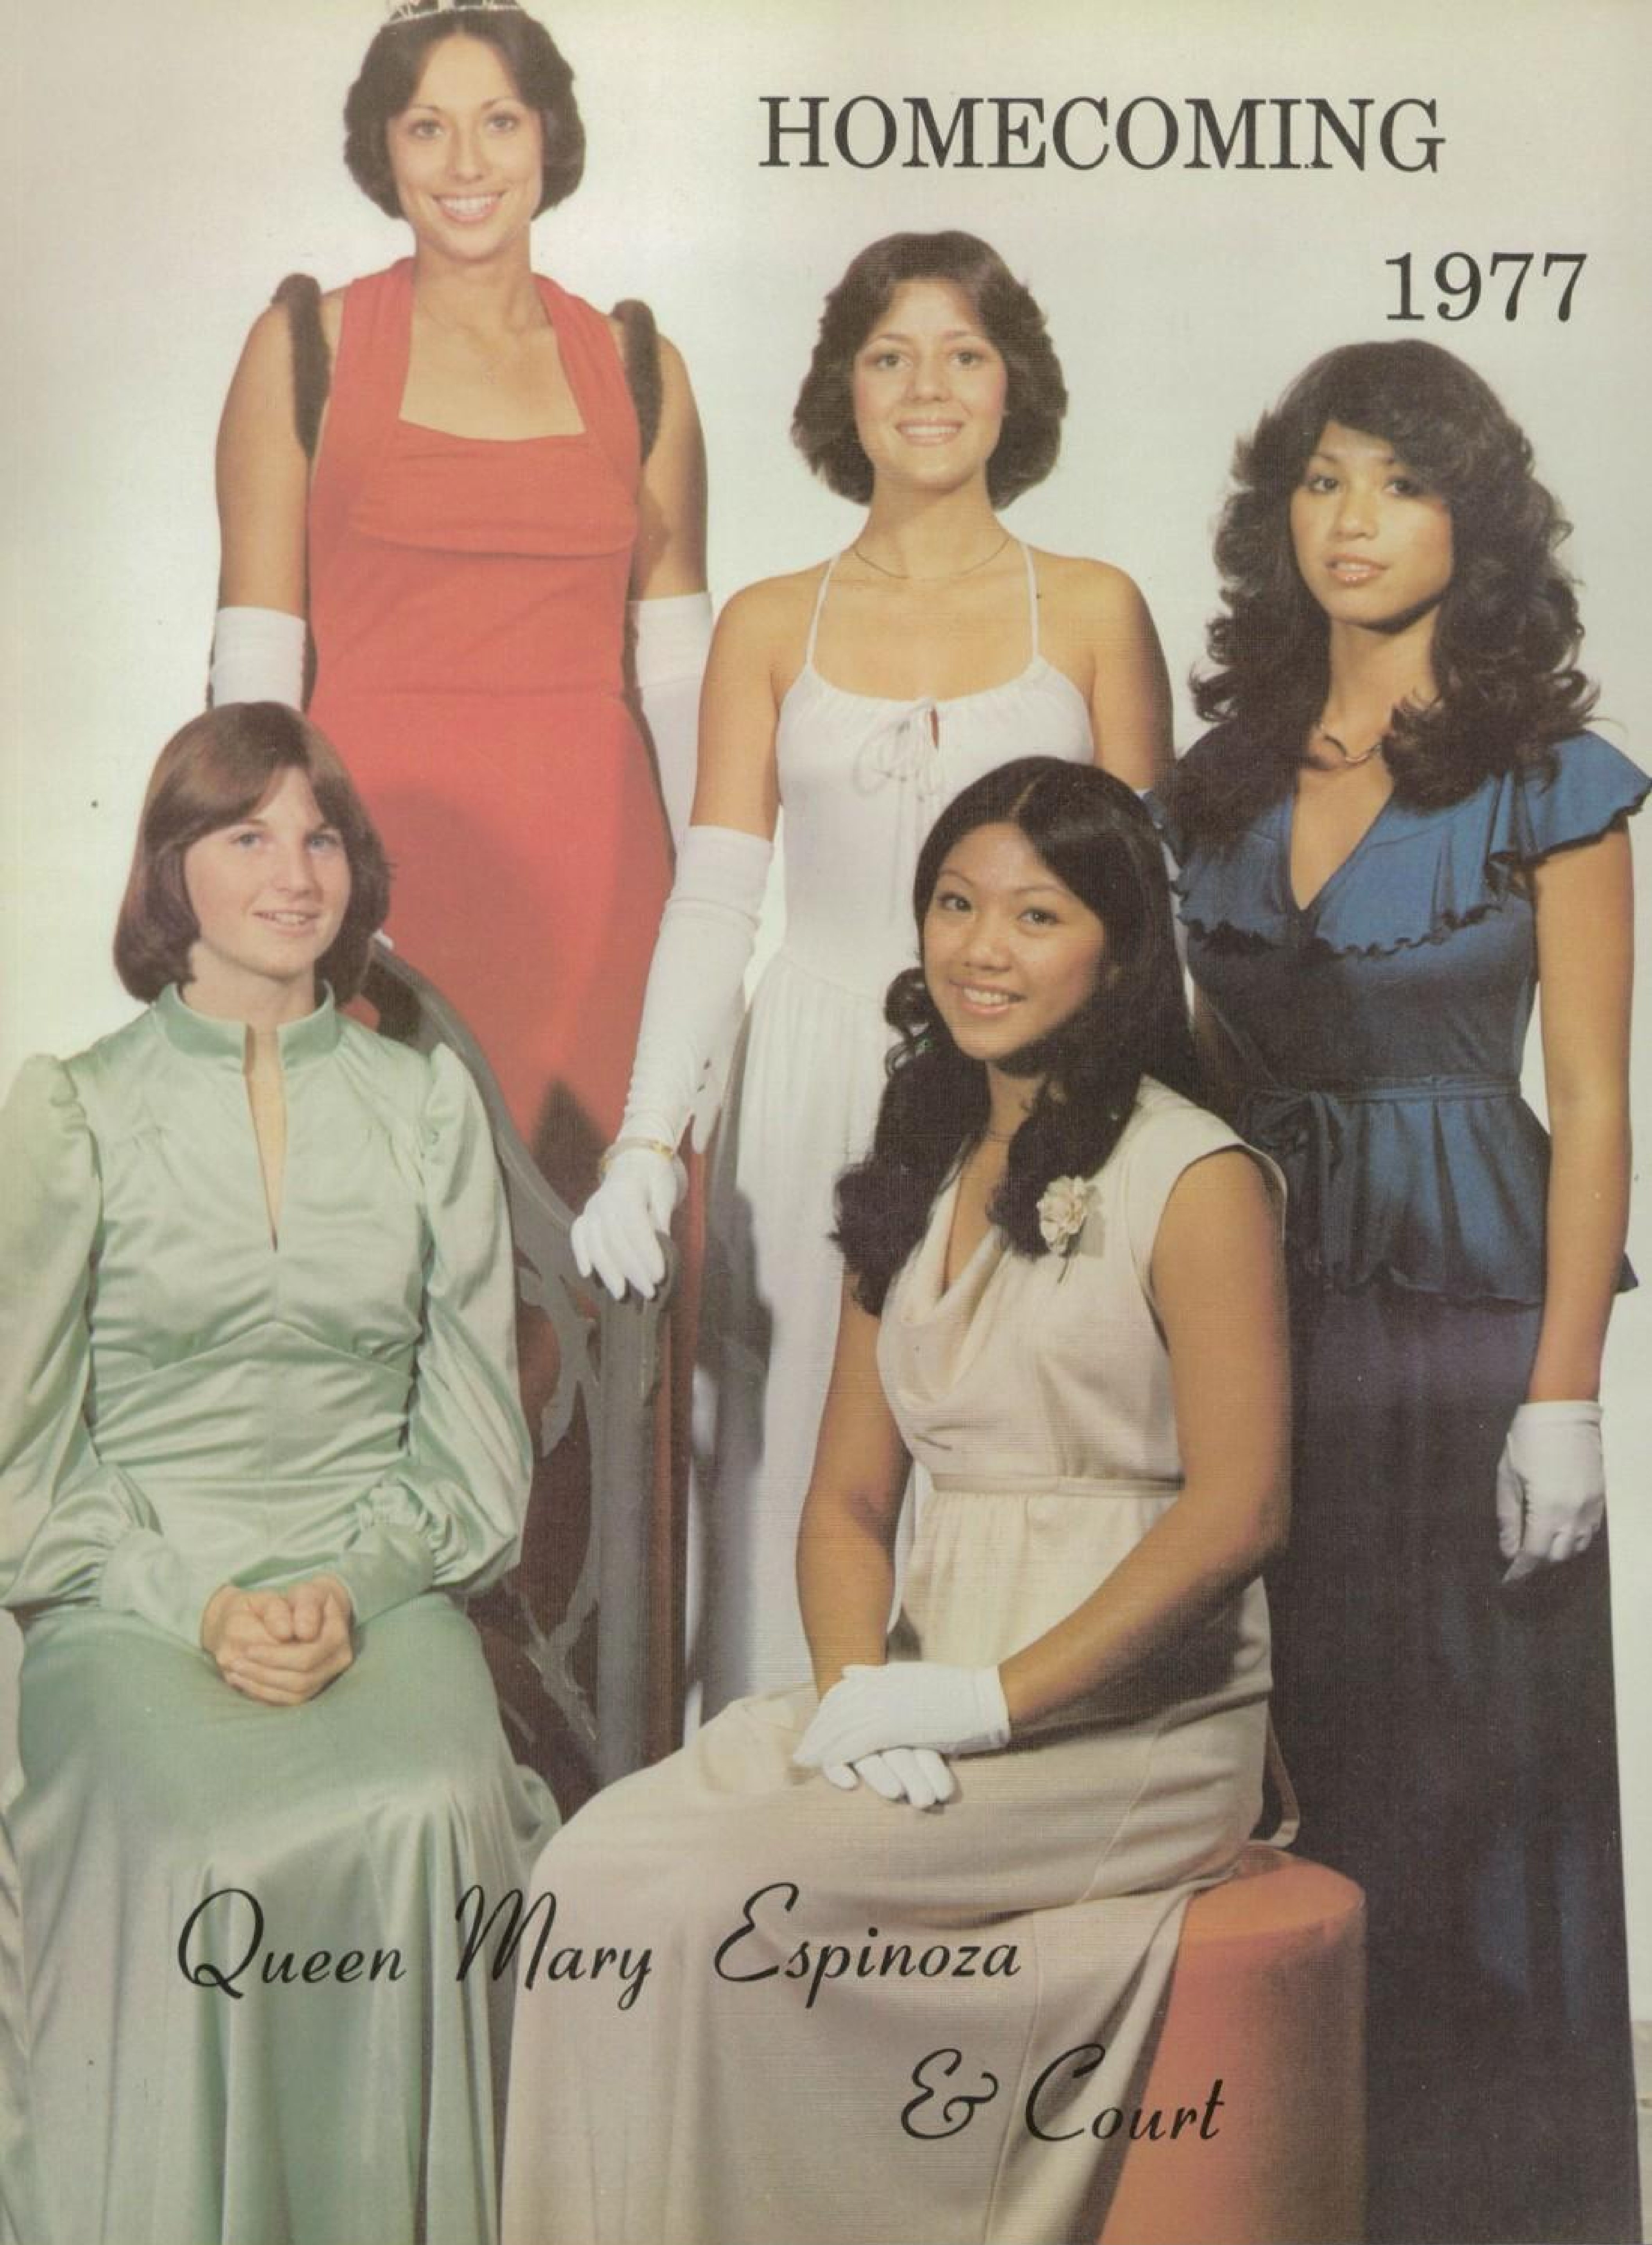
1977



Queen Mary Espinoza

& Court

October 28, 1977, provided lots of excitement for the student body. Queen Mary Espinoza reigned over a $500 fireworks display, a "fantabulous half-time show, and the Homecoming victory dance.

FACULTY

Guiding the district was the school board of Mr. Ruben Hill, Mr. Winsloe Mata, Mr. Ronald Cole, Mr. Angel Diaz, and Dr. Edward Yoon.

More emphasis in certain areas of the school program and a survey to determine what major capital outlay projects are desired highlighted the school year at Delano High.

Delano High enrolled 1,745 students while Valley High school listed 114, ROCK 96, and adult education classes 1,026 persons.

Carried out during the year were further development of agriculture, industrial arts, drama, speech, special education, migrant education, reading, bilingual education, career education and the physical education programs. In PE there was a merger of boys' and girls' classes to meet Title IX requirements.

In the extra-curricular area there were more girls' sports put into effect, adding JV basketball and softball. Rally Club, band, and drill teams changes also took place. One problem that continued to plague the campus was that of bells and clocks. In spite of that, people got to class and out of class!

Delano High was allocated $185,000 for operations this year. Funds were distributed among the 15 departments and seven other budgetary units. Funds were expended for textbooks, other books, instructional supplies, audio visual materials and machines, equipment replacement, equipment repairs, in-service training, rents and leases and new equipment.

The art and sophomore requirements classes benefited from the first full year of use of the new ASR building. The problem with a breakdown of electricity and heat in the library building interrupted social studies and English programs for nearly two weeks. The student survey showed concern with water fountains, football bleachers, telephones, football bowl, recreation center, stadium restrooms, and tennis courts.

Dr. Frank Dyer is district superintendent.

Mr. Joshua Serrano filled the busy shoes of principal Continually on the go were counselors Carlos Cordero, Harold Benno, Earl Boccone, Cheryl Kuney, Shirley Fetalvero, and J.B. Teasley.

Ringmasters

Helping students interested in directly reaching the job market were Richard Schwang, work experience coordinator, and Paul Genoud, career counselor.

Secretaries to the principal, Sherri Horton, and to the superintendent, Joan Collins, filled busy roles.

TIGERS

Sports

Tigers Triumphant!

Battling their way into the valley football playoffs was nothing new for the Delano Tigers who previously accomplished the goal in 1972, 1973, and 1974, but with only eight lettermen on hand as the East Yosemite League season arrived, the Tigers polished off five straight league opponents, allowing only 4.5 points per game in the process, to win the eighth crown for Coach Gene Beck in his 17 years as head coach.

After a pair of hard-fought wins over South Yosemite league foes Highland and East Bakersfield, the Tigers lost a heart-stopper in the final minutes to North, 22-21, and then fell to the valley's No. 1 ranked Mt. Whitney Pioneers after being tied at the half and dropped a practice encounter to Redwood.

But Delano after a rocky 9-2 opening league triumph over Tulare Western knocked over Monache 32-0 in convincing fashion before a homecoming crowd, tumbled with ease league runner-up Arvin 23-8, for the first time in four years spilled Porterville, 28-7, and then wound up an unbeaten league season with a 22-6 decision over Tulare Union.

Entering the valley playoffs of the Yosemite Division in the quarter finals, the Tigers lost a hard-fought 13-6 battle to Bakersfield High, the South Yosemite runner-up, as the Drillers dominated the first half by a 10-0 score before the Tigers tallied early in the third period and mounted several threats including a last-minute passing drive downfield which was shattered by a goal-line interception.

Delano rated No. 9 in the valley and No. 6 in Kern County in prep football ratings with a team featuring the strong running of seniors Anthony Gabaldon and Lance Molica and junior Randy Smith the throwing of Randy Mendoza and Molica to top receivers Bobby Scott and Eddie Valov, a generally small but quick-moving offensive line and a defensive unit which featured the line play of returning all-league middle guard Lance Molica, two-way tackle Nick Valov and rugged linebackers Danny Serda and Lee Molica.

JV's finish close third

Junior Tiger gridders suffered through four straight practice defeats before breaking loose for a one-sided practice victory over Redwood. In league play the club won three of five, losing to Arvin, 22-13, in a game decided by two quick Bruin scores early in the third period, one set up by a fumble, and then in the finale to league champion and powerful Tulare Union, 35-14.

Sophomore tailback Ugo Ledezma exploded for more than 1,000 yards rushing on the season and speedy Sammy Aquino reeled off several long kickoff and punt returns, including long touchdown gallops in three straight games.

Ugo Ledezma (23), who stormed to more than 1,000 yards rushing on the year, scoots around end in photos at top and bottom right. In between is kick returning ace Sammy Aquino (20) who raced kickoffs and punts back in three consecutive games for long TD runs. Darrell Duran, above, tries for a reception.

Young Poloists Improve

A 4-6 league record was posted by the Delano Tigershark water polo team as Exeter again dominated the circuit with Monache and Porterville battling for second place.

The Sharks made up in determination and hard work, practicing both before and after school, for any skills they lacked and worked hard to improve upon their aggressive play as the season progressed. More swimmers, especially underclassmen, will again be the goal of Coach Gary Shaffer when the fall campaign rolls around.

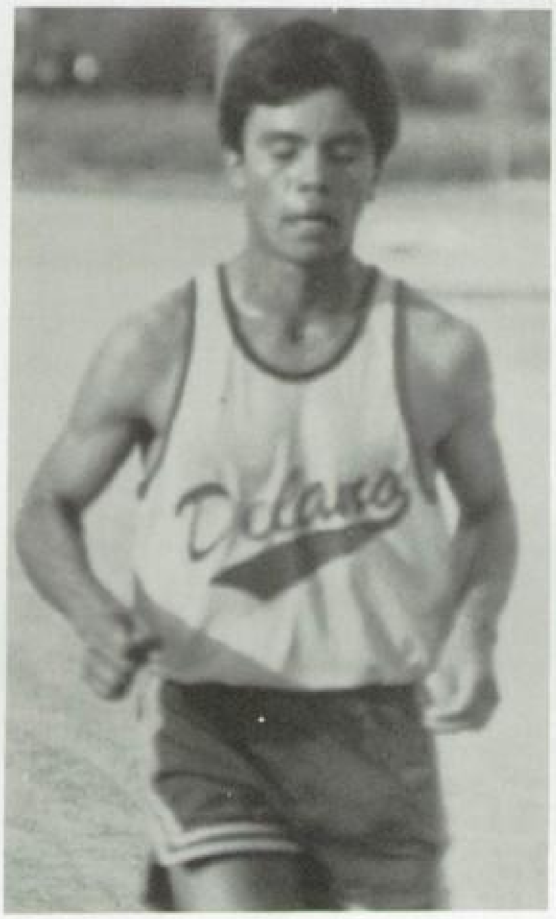
Harriers Finish Fourth

This year's cross country team was led by many seniors. Felipe Segovia was outstanding senior boy and Helen Lopez outstanding senior girl. The boys' varsity ended up fourth in league and with the close of the season came the loss of seven of the eleven male runners. Next year will be a building year with Jerry Ausborn, Danny Rife, and Teddy Millon leading the "Tiger Harriers." We were short on numbers for the girl's team, but Delano has been fortunate to have a young lady as Helen Lopez representing the girl runners for the past four years. Almost everywhere she ran she either set, equalled, or almost equalled meet and/or course record. She ended her cross country career at Delano by winning the EYL championship meet, fourth in the area meet, and seventh in the valley meet. Delano High as well as their coach will miss these fine young men and women.



Reaching the valley meet were Helen Lopez who placed seventh and Felipe Segovia who was 54th in the varsity class.

e varsity volleyballers entered the season with all but one turning player and high hopes of a high league finish.
owever, as Coach Kären Stahl noted, "We never got the ment out of our shoes," and the Tigerettes ended a ustrating season tied for fifth place. Despite the record, ach Stahl praised the girls for their valiant effort and dication. Their determination was displayed in an upset n over league champion Tulare Western. The Tigerettes k forward to a better season next year with help from s year's strong JV team which ended with a 10-7 record.

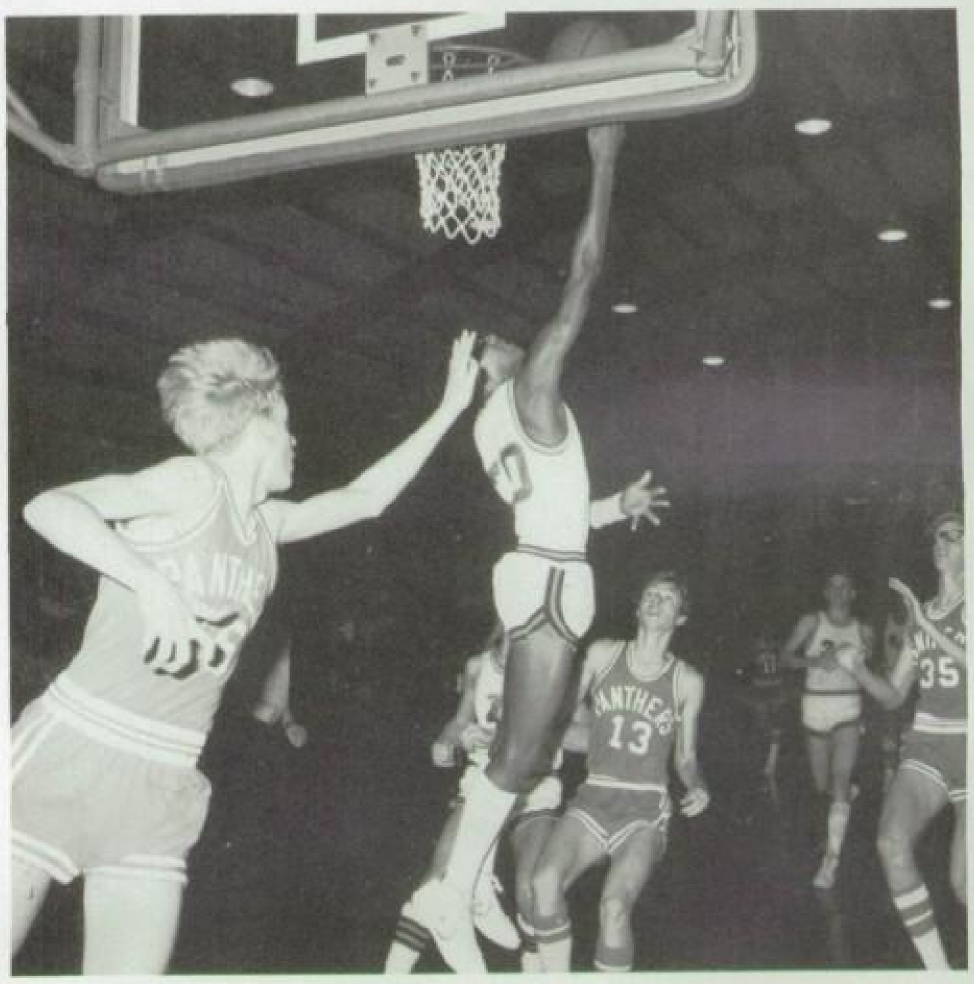
Two titles in a row

Members of the championship varsity basketball team were Coach Lee Lowry, mgr. Steve Morrow, Randy Mendoza, Ruben Duran, Marlin Hiett, Roy Hooks, Nick Valov, Peter Thoroddsson, Eddie Yetter, Eddie Valov, Cornelius Wright, Vito Camat, and managers Ken Hennessee and Mark Aguilar.



With an emphasis on defense, the Delano Tiger basketball team had many late arrivals from the football playoffs and improving their own game consistently were able to streak to their second straight East Yosemite League title, finishing two games in front of runners-up Arvin and Porterville. The Tigers lost their first and last regularly scheduled league games but won the other eight.

Delano was 14-11 on the season, winding up by losing a pulsating 59-56 decision to Garces in the first round of the valley playoffs. Three Tigers fouled out in the contest, played at the Highland gym, as Delano led most of the second half until Garces gained the lead by a point and added two free shots with one second to play.

Nick Valov was a repeat all-league pick and along with Ruben Duran made first team All-EYL. Eddie Yetter and Cornelius Wright were honorable mention.

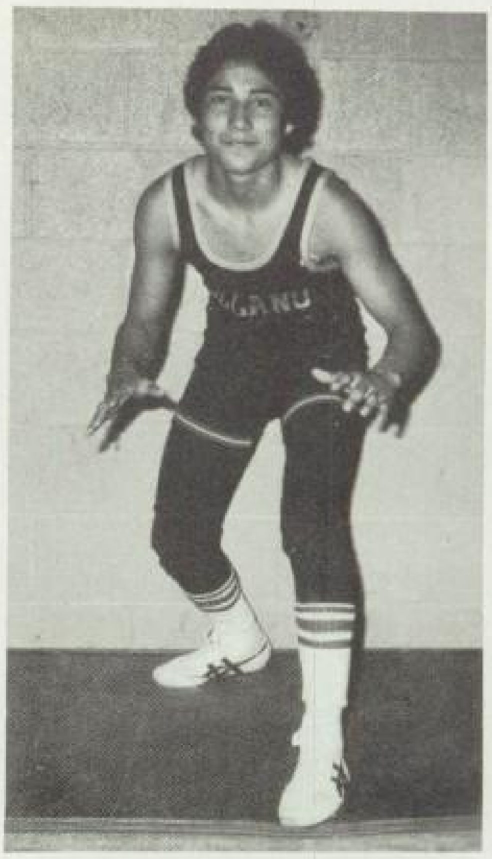
Lance Molica, fourth in the state wrestling championships as a junior, placed third in this year's state meet in the heavyweight division. He lost an early state meet match in overtime but battled out of the consolation bracket to earn third place. He was runner-up at Cal Poly, losing one of his two season losses to Mitch Finklea of Fountain Valley whom he later beat in the comeback at the state meet. Molica was 25-2 on the year with league, divisional, and valley titles.



Junior Dan Silva came on strong to win the league wrestling title and then in the valley meet grabbed off sixth place as did Joel Valov. He will bolster next season the returnees for Coach Jon Talbott's crew which tries to improve on its second place league finish behind Monache which won the valley title as well.

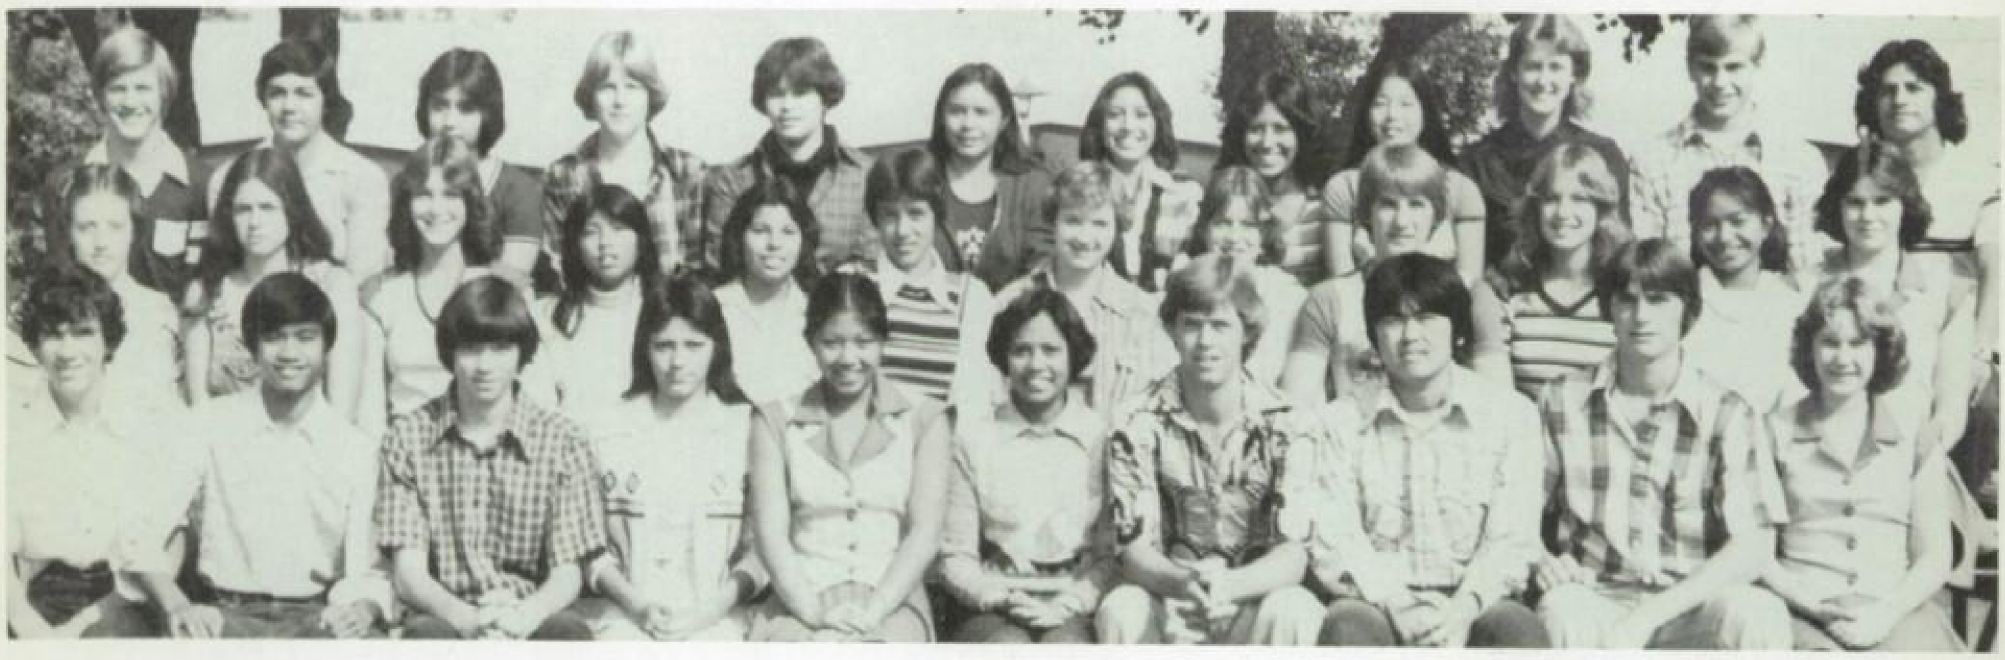
Rally Club



Rally Club members were, first row, Dean Tullsen, Loy Monsanto, Mylon Marshall, Frances Escobar, Arleen Villaruz, Anna Manzano, Jerry McCorkle, Spencer Lee, David Vandergriff, and Merrilee Holgate; second row, Nancy Goodwin, Laurie Lara, Sandi Cummings, Diana Kimpo, Cathy Alvarado, Jan Bans, Lucricia Bozanich, Nikki Worley, Mark Andreas, Jeannine Holtz, Theresa Barney, and Laura Sorenson; and, third row, Scott Whittington, Allyson Bans, Cathy Peinado, Lori Kingsley, Elaine Gil, Barbara Donato, Yvonne Salas, Nora Abdullah, Marsha Okino, Shanna Sproul, Eddie Yetter, and Mike Mendoza.

Rally Club activities included painting signs for varsity football and basketball events, learning cheers, and working at frosh-soph and frosh football games. Sale of concessions helped the club finance its spirit-making activities.

Leaders of Rally Club were, top to bottom, Allyson Bans, president; Marsha Okino, secretary; Jerry McCorkle, vice-president; and Jeannine Holtz, treasurer.
